

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Independence Square Auxiliary No. 276 of American Red Cross and Overseas Committee of Emergency Aid Benefit November 13

You see, the Red Cross wants to make sure that no soldier shall go without a Christmas packet, either abroad or at home, and so the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter has asked each auxiliary to contribute a number of packages in a very short time to be sent to our boys 'over there' and here. All this takes considerable money, and so ways and means have been considered by the various branches, and the Independence Square Auxiliary No. 276 of the Red Cross has asked the Overseas Committee of the Emergency Aid to join hands with it to raise funds for Christmas packets, and they are going to do it. Mrs. George Horace Lorimer is chairman of the Independence Square Auxiliary and Mrs. Samuel Bell, Jr., chairman of the Overseas.

They have asked Miss Kathlene Burke to come on November 13 to the Academy of Music to speak, and she has said that she would give a talk which she had only given once before, and that was in New York, where the amount raised in consequence was $300,000. Any of us who have heard Miss Burke know how perfectly fascinating she is, and there is little doubt that the old Academy will be well filled to hear this earnest little woman speak.

Think of the soldiers who will be made happy by delightful little packets of cigarettes, tobacco, pipes, chocolate, chewing gum, cards, puzzles, fruit cake, preservative ginger, neckties, mouth c-rans, electric torches; in fact, you can't imagine all the things the Red Cross has thought of and the response it has had from its various chapters throughout the Union. The Independence Square branch alone is giving one thousand packages. It's simply wonderful.

I RATHER think the Jumble Sale which the members of the Junior League are getting up will be quite some little sale, and you never saw anything like the way those girls are chasing around collecting rummage of all varieties, which they expect to sell from November 27 to December 2 inclusive. The proceeds for the entire sale will be donated to the Red Cross, and the many aides will be composed of the members of the Junior League.

A postal card to any of the committee would prompt attention, a motorcar being sent for any discarded articles of clothing, bric-a-brac, books, pictures, furniture, jewelry or music that may be contributed.

So universal has become the interest in this enterprise that, aside from the two hundred members of the Junior League, many others have offered their services for the occasion. An unusually large collection of slightly worn clothing for women is already on hand for display. These will be sold by Mrs. George Eustis Payne, Jr., who was Helen Ellis, and Helen Tower. Wonderful bargains in men's clothing will be dispensed by Mrs. C. Penno Hoffman Marie Wright that was Mrs. Rowland Evans, Jr.—in other words Bessie Downs.

Discarded books will be gratefully received by Nancy Reath, who will have charge of this branch of the sale, assisted by a number of the aides.

A restaurant will also be a feature of the occasion, when a number of young girls will serve luncheons each day. This department is under the direction of Mary Newbold, to whom contributions of cakes, cookies and other edibles may be sent. Flowers will be sold by Emily Fox.

Prominent among the other members who are now hard at work to make the occasion a success are Miss Constance Biddle, Mrs. William J. Clothier, Mrs. Orville Bullitt, Eugenia Cassatt, Molly Thayer, Marion Taylor, Charlotte Rush, Patty Borie, Katharine Chambers, Mrs. Robert F. Meigs, Miss Marian Savage and Mrs. Edward Dale Toland, Jr.

HE was just eighteen and the business of having a sister-in-law was entirely new to him. He had brothers, naturally, since she was his sister-in-law, but no sisters, and although he was awfully fond of Barbara and used to have very brotherly rough houses with her occasionally when big brother didn't interfere, there was one point of etiquette that rather puzzled him. He said nothing to anybody until one night when he was coming home from the movies with a friend who had about half a year on him in age. The last tableau of the picture seemed to dwell in his mind, and he pondered over it in thoughtful silence for several blocks. Finally, unable to stand it any longer, he blurted out, "Say, Bill, ought I to kiss Bab?" Bill didn't know any better than he did, and I don't know if he ever started, but the last time I saw him he had just returned from a training camp and there was no doubt or hesitation about whether he could or he couldn't—he did! NANCY WYNE.

MINSTREL SHOW FOR RED CROSS

Young Men of Northeastern Philadelphia to Give Entertainment This Evening

Patriotic efforts in aiding the Red Cross need not necessarily be confined to knitting or sewing alone, for there still remains another way, namely, giving entertainment for the cause, and there is a great deal of this.

It would be not impossible, but quite improbable, for the young men to congregate at the Tuesday or Thursday afternoon knitting clubs, not to mention, in most cases, the inefficient results of their efforts. For every one admits that the young men are not quite so adept with a needle or a sewing machine as with a song or a dance.

There is a group of young men in the northeastern section of the city whose patriotic zeal has prompted them to add this wonderful Red Cross organization, as a result of which they will give a minstrel show this evening under the auspices of Auxiliary No. 178 at Dison Hall, East Cumberland and Cedar streets, the proceeds of which will be turned over to the Red Cross. This minstrel show is not a new endeavor on the part of these young men, for it is an annual affair given for a number of years now. So to judge from past performances this year's show will be a great success. The cast in the show includes: End men, Mr. George W. Kelly, Mr. C. Howard Gilbert, Mr. James N. Hunt and Mr. James Pollock; interactor, Mr. Charles F. Weeks; soloists, Mr. Clarence P. Morgan, Mr. Ira B. Turner, Mr. Harold Beecher, chorus, Mr. Harold Bauer, Mr. Russell Bauer, Mr. Walter Harvey, Mr. William Mollineau, Mr. John Ewen, Mr. Milton O. Pierce, Jr., and Mr. Walter Shugart. A solo will be given by Mr. Lewis Fredericks and the Kensington Quartet will give several selections.

A sketch entitled "The Haunted Room," which, by the way, is quite appropriate for just this time, will also be given, when those taking part will be Miss James Pollock, Mr. Harold Bauer, Mr. James Hunt, Mr. Milton O. Pierce, Jr., and Mr. Arthur E. Temple. Mrs. Sara Beeter, who is connected with the Red Cross, will be dressed in nurse's costume and give several patriotic solos.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donohue, of 2535 Frankford avenue, gave a birthday party on Tuesday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Alice Donohue. Those present were Miss Helen Cunningham, Miss Regina McGulgan, Miss Mary Walker, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Helen McArdle, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Catherine Walsh, Miss Constance Walsh, Miss Helen Stinson, Miss Helen Doggett, Miss Catherine McGulgan, Miss Mary Doyle, Miss Helen Murphy, Miss Ethel Kane, Miss Bertha Atkinson, Miss Florence Ashworth, Miss Anna Sherick, Miss Mary McKay, Miss Virginia Donnelly, Miss Helen Scully, Miss Virginia Murry and Miss Katherine Daley.

This evening the Degree of Pochontas will give a masquerade party at Harley's Hall, 2666 Coral street. The committee consists of Mrs. Hanna Bell, Miss Carrie Boyd, Mrs. A. Hollenworth, Mrs. K. Bataza, Mrs. E. Brunner and Mrs. L. Boyd. Mr. G. Thomas, of 22nd avenue, is visiting his old homestead in Thomas, Pa., for about a week.

Miss Martha E. Steel, of Passaic, N. J., who has been the guest of Mrs. Allen Thomas, of 2585 Frankford avenue, has returned to her home.

A musical entertainment will be given tomorrow evening by the teachers and pupils of the Frances E. Willard School, at Emerald and Orleans streets, for the benefit of the Red Cross. Mr. Andrew Strong is chairman of the committee in charge.

The next meeting of the Fathers' Association of Frankford will be held this evening, when Dr. Calvin Althaus will be the speaker of the evening. An interesting musical program has also been arranged.

MISS EDITH CARPENTER

A bazaar for the benefit of the wool-and comfort fund for the American soldiers and for the free beds at the Jefferson Hospital's convalescent home at Wayne, Pa., will be given at the Bellevue, Stratford, November 8.

BAZAAR TO BE HELD AT THE BELLEVUE

Liberty Bond to Be Chanced Off at Fair for Wool Fund

Owing to damage by fire, arrangements have been completed to hold the bazaar for the wool and comfort fund for our men at the front and for free beds of the Jefferson Hospital's Convalescent Home at Wayne, at the Bellevue-Stratford in the red room, gold room and clover room on November 8, from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m. Mr. David Lewis, chairman, has asked those interested in these two most worthy charities to come on that date and help.

Many new ideas will be introduced and the bazaar has already assumed enormous proportions. The musical promises to be one of the most interesting features of the entertainment, all the artists who represent the best-known amateur talent in the city, appearing in costume. The musical program is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Latta.

Many donations have been made which will be chanced off during the day, among them handsome pieces of silver, a beautiful portrait by Edith Cavell and for the dog lovers, a fine pedigree Pomeranian that has been donated by the Philadelphia Country Club.

No one is so well supplied with Liberty Bonds that they will not be anxious to obtain one more, and to win it in a game of chance adds to the value of its possession. Mrs. Thomas P. Hunter has donated a bond which will be chanced off during the day. A box for the South Broad Street Theatre has also been donated.

Many prominent actors and actresses from the different companies in the city that week will act as aides during the day, while Miss Christine Har Stockton will have charge of the debutante aides, who will be dressed in costumes to represent what they are selling.

Prominent among the aids will be Mrs. Griswold Lorillard, of New York; Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Miss Lila T. Fisher, Miss Marie Louise Dillon, Miss Elizabeth Hood Latta, Mrs. Houston Greene, Miss Marion Button and Mrs. H. Mason.

On Monday evening Miss Alma Wallace gave a small dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Babbitt, who now live in Swarthmore.

Miss Josephine Pilling is visiting friends in Erie, Pa.

The senior class of the Lansdowne High School is going to give a dance in the gymnasium on the evening of November 17.

CHRISTMAS BAGS FOR SOLDIERS

Lansdowners Make Comfort Bags and Knit Under Auspices of Red Cross

In these days it seems to be a veritable case of "do your Christmas shopping early," with all the packages full of cheerfulness to be sent on their journey overseas several weeks before the Christmas time to think that Christmas was coming. Of course, every one wants to give some soldier boy a little happiness at this time of the year, and even though one may not know any man in khaki who has gone over, one may send a Christmas box through any one of the organizations busy collecting money to get to somebody who perhaps wouldn't have had any Christmas if you hadn't made it for him. Out in Lansdowne, Miss Marie Carakaddon has been very busy fixing khaki handkerchiefs for the Red Cross. All sorts of nice surprises are tucked inside of these "hankies," and a great many persons have helped Miss Carakaddon in getting their ready. She sent a lot of them to Red Cross headquarters in Philadelphia the early part of this week.

Miss Leonard Kent, Jr., is starting a knitting class to be held at the Lansdowne Red Cross house every Friday morning. Even if one does know how to make such things as sweaters and scarfs, socks may seem fearfully hard to knit. So Mrs. Kent is going to teach the way these should be knit to any one who wants to learn. She has also offered to visit the homes of any "shut-ins" wishing to do his work and instruct them. The wool will be furnished by the Lansdowne Red Cross branch, and naturally the articles will be turned over to this branch when finished.

About a month ago some sailors from the battleship Iowa came out to Lansdowne and gave an entertainment to the people of the town. They were trying to raise the money to buy a piano for their ship before they left Philadelphia. Mrs. E. Ager-Smith, who made it possible for them to give the entertainment, has heard that the men were able to buy the piano they wanted so much with the money the Lansdowners so generously gave.

On Saturday afternoon the Woman Suffrage party held a rummage sale in Dr. Warren Rhoad's garage. Mrs. Paul Lachenmeyer, Mrs. Francis D. Maxwell and Mrs. Clarence Hill collected the articles for the sale. They were a great variety. The collectors chose a good time, with every woman busy housecleaning.

The Century Club has had classes in various subjects, such as French, making and cooking, whenever the members have expressed a desire for them. And now a dancing class has been organized with Mrs. William D. Lewis as chairman. The class is limited to club members and their husbands, and it meets every Tuesday evening in the clubhouse.

There are twenty-two couples, and they surely do give a lot of fun out of it. The people belonging to the class are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Pick, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Fien E. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar S. Kimberley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Le Fevre, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Longstreth, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Love, Mr. and Mrs. William A. McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Mussen, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick A. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. O'Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Shurtleff, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sharpley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ziegler.

Mrs. William S. Baxter gave a small bridge party on Friday afternoon for Mrs. Sara Eastburn, of Newark. The guests were Mrs. Edward B. Jones, Mrs. James W. Caspell, Mrs. William Magann, Mrs. James Funnell, Mrs. Katherine B. Jones, Mrs. Louie Harley, Miss Etta Yarnell, Mrs. Benjamin B. Osborne, Mrs. C. D. Caldwell, Mrs. John Nichols, Mrs. Walter R. Noble, Mrs. N. Zahn and Mrs. John R. Bickley.

On Monday evening Miss Alma Wallace gave a small dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Babbitt, who now live in Swarthmore.

TWO COMMITTEES WORKING

National Service and Citizens' Patriotic Organizations Making Woolen Comforts and Sending Boxes to Soldiers of Falls of Schuylkill

THE members of the Falls of Schuylkill Presbyterian Church organized a national service committee to look after the welfare of the Falls boys in the army and navy before the forming of the Citizens' Patriotic Committee, and now these warm-hearted men and women are working for both. The special work of the service committee has been the knitting of sweaters, socks, helmets, wristlets and all the woolen garments necessary for the soldiers' comfort. They attend first to the twelve boys of the church who enlisted to serve the nation and then all the Falls boys are added to these. Tobacco has been sent to the camps and now they are preparing boxes of fruit cake, candy and fruit for Thanksgiving while the Christmas gifts will be ready to follow in time for that holiday also. The meetings are held on Friday evenings in the social hall of the church on Ridge avenue, and all the neighbors are invited to stop in and chat about their soldier boys while they work. Mrs. Sallie Hamilton is chairman, Mrs. Jennie Hamilton, secretary, Mrs. George Wagner, treasurer. That indefatigable worker, Mrs. Elizabeth Dohson 'Altemus' is chairman of the wool committee and has Mrs. Harry Jones as her helper. Mrs. Nellie Gray is chairman of the tobacco fund and Mr. George Hamilton of the magazine section. The men of the church taking an active interest in the work are Mr. James Stewart, Mr. Alexander Stewart, Mr. Charles Palmer, Mr. Horace Linton, Mr. Walter MacIndoe, Mr. Herbert Johnson, Mr. David Borland and Mr. G. H. Hamilton.

Mrs. S. Hamilton, of 4175 Ridge avenue, gave an informal reception on Saturday at her home on the Ridge for the Falls boys' things to eat. The affair was in aid of the Presbyterian Orphanage at Hala. Assisting Mrs. Hamilton were Miss Helen Houghton, Miss Helen Houghton, Miss Nellie Gray, Miss Marian Gray, Miss Dorothy Baker, Miss Elsie Newbeck, Miss Hannah Zorn and Miss Florence Halph.

The members of the Fortnightly Club were entertained last Thursday evening by Miss Nellie Roy, of Frankford, formerly of the Falls. The Young Women's Christian Association held its annual Halloween festival on Saturday evening, with the clubhouse on Ridge avenue decorated with all the emblems of the witches' coven. There were some very pretty costumes worn by the maskers, as well as some very spooky ones, too. Every one had creeps and thrills and the jolliest kind of a time trying fortunes.

Another interesting masquerade entertainment was the dance of the Young Men's Literary Institute on Tuesday evening in the clubhouse on the Ridge. The prizes were for the most comical costume and for the most comical, good music and special dances.

In appreciation of the kindness shown by the residents of the Falls in assisting financially to rebuild the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, after it had been greatly damaged by fire, the members gave a free organ recital in the church, Thirty-fifth street and Midvale avenue, last week. The Rev. Arthur T. Michler is pastor. Mr. Harry Sykes, of Norristown, was the soloist.
